MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: OLL 84-2945: Request from Senator Denton for Copies of CIA Regulations Governing
Acceptance of Gifts and Gratuities by Employees

1. On 24 August, I spoke with Joel Lisker, Chief Counsel of the Subcommittee on Security and Terrorism, Senate Judiciary Committee. Mr. Lisker is the contact point for the subject request.

2. Mr. Lisker stated that the request is for regulations and policy guidelines that relate in any way to Justice Title 28. Examples he cited include:

- employees accepting invitations from foreign government representatives to travel or attend social events (who pays?);
- employees accepting meals;
- possible sanctions against employees who do not adhere to regulations.

3. Mr. Lisker stated that he was surprised that CIA and the other intelligence agencies did not have these regulations on record with the Department of Justice. He also stated that he had tried to obtain the regulations from our Oversight Committees but was told that the Committees did not have them. Mr. Lisker stated that he was agreeable to working through the Committees and mentioned the name of Rob Simmons.
